

IECH has so far helped over 1,700 couples reach the dream of paternity. Among its achievements, it counts on the first assisted fertility baby in the country (1988), the first two babies from a slow freeze-and-thaw process (2007), and a national certification for excellent results in aiding pregnancies. Given its success, IECH has expanded its presence to Tijuana and Chihuahua, and now plans on further sites throughout Mexico.

For more information, please visit its web site by clicking here .

Fertility Procedures

Joomla SEF URLs by Artio